

Carolyn Marie "Wendy" Coleman

April 8, 1964 - December 20, 2010

To everything there is a season, a time to every purpose under the heaven.
Ecclesiastes 3:1

A Time To Be Born

Carolyn Marie "Wendy" Coleman was born on April 8, 1964 in Richmond, Virginia to Nettie Coleman Tyler and the late Lawrence Jackson. She was preceded in death by two siblings, James (Jimmy) Coleman and Teresa (TeeTee) Coleman.

A Time To Learn

Wendy attended the Hanover County Public Schools. Her passion for driving led her to obtain a Commercial Driver's License.

A Time To Love

Wendy was married to Melvin Faison. Although they parted ways, they remained friends. She loved her family and friends and was always willing to lend a helping hand to make their lives better. She loved having fun and always had something to say. There was never a dull moment while in Wendy's presence. She was well loved by many who knew her. Wendy loved the students who rode her school bus and the children in the community even though she had to set them straight at times. She loved planting flowers which was her favorite hobby.

A Time To Serve

At an early age, Wendy confessed Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and joined Brown Grove Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. James A. Lynch. She rededicated her life to the Lord in April 2010. Over the years, Wendy worked for a number of employers. For the last 14 years, she drove school bus for both Richmond Public Schools and Henrico County Transportation. She was a dedicated school bus driver who always took on extra driving assignments.

A Time To Shine

Wendy was a good mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, sister-in-law and friend. She shined most when she was surrounded by her three grandchildren and great nephew who all called her "Nanny." She enjoyed having cookouts with her family and friends. Her children's friends were always welcomed in her home. Many of them called her "mom". She was a giver from the heart.

A Time To Mourn

On Monday evening, December 20, 2010, Wendy was called from labor to rest. She quietly went home to be with the Lord while surrounded by family and friends at her bedside at home.

“ To all of the Coleman family, I am so sorry or your loss. May each of you bask in the memories you have of the times shared with Wendy. As difficult and challenging the days ahead will be, take comfort in the fact that she is resting, and her course on this earth is complete. She ran ahead, but you will see her again on the other side. We sorrow, but not like those who have no hope. May the Lord smile upon each of you as you prepare to meet Wendy some day.

*Sincerely,
Geneva Reid*

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly reveals "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful promise that will be made possible from Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Despite this difficult time, you can be comforted by the hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes we have a real hope for seeing our loved ones again.
