“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. We feel so much pain associated with the death of a loved one, but at such times we can look to the God of tender mercies and comfort, who comforts us during all of our tribulations. One day the enemy death will be destroyed, according to 1st Cor 15,26, and the dead will be raised up to a wonderful paradise that God is creating. 2nd Peter 3,13. One day no more sorrow, no more pain.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 tells us that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed". Also another encouraging promise is that those in the "memorial tombs" will be raised from the dead. (John 5:28,29) Many will come back to life on a paradise earth with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Isaiah 33:24, Psalm 37:29, Revelation 21:3-5) May you receive much comfort and strength as you think about these promises from the Bible. And may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.###imported-begin##Sharon Hill###imported-end##
