

Carolyn Epps

January 10, 1964 - October 25, 2007

CAROLYN A. EPPS, daughter of the late Emma Mae Epps and Robert Epps Sr., was born January 10, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on October 25th after a sudden illness. She received her education at Lake Clifton High School in Baltimore City. She then became employed at Towson College where she was hired in the cafeteria. Carolyn was a person who had a great sense of humor. She had a smile that could brighten the day. She could sing and loved taking the responsibility of being a mother to her younger brothers and sisters. She also was a great caretaker to Barbara Chilsom. She leaves to mourn: her father, Robert Sr.; two sons, Davon and Antonio; two brothers, Robert Jr. and Myron; three sisters, Roslyn, Sharonette and Janell Redd; grandmother, Annie Mae Ryan; three nephews, Trendell, Vernon, Jamaal; four nieces, Nicole, Daniell, Amber and Rashaun; grandson, Tavian; great-nephew, Avion; four aunts, Nettie, Burnell, Angela and Lisa; uncle, Tyrell; mother-in-law, Ms. Ruby; a host of cousins, friends and other relatives.

“ To the family of Mrs Epps, I wish to express my deepest sympathy. The pain we feel when we lose a loved one can really tear our hearts apart. Noone should have to go through this saddness. Jehovah never desired this for mankind. His desire is for all obedient people to live eternally in peaceful and secure conditions. He calls death our enemy, and he promises that this enemy will be brought to nothing." 1st Cor 15:26. One day there will be a world free of sickness and death, and many will be brought back to life. John 5:28,29 promises: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; to a ressurection of life." Please find comfort in Jehovah's promises, as well as in your cherished memories.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
