

Carolyn Marie Faulk

February 25, 1956 - December 10, 2016

Carolyn Marie Faulk was born in Richmond, Virginia on February 25, 1956, the daughter of Mary F. Patterson and the late Charles Faulk. She departed this life on Saturday, December 10, 2016.

Carolyn was educated in the Richmond Public School System and graduated in 1974 from John F. Kennedy High School. She furthered her education at J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College and earned her degree in computer operations June 12, 1976. After graduating she was employed by the State of Virginia with the Bureau of Vital Statistics where she was a dedicated employee for more than 16 years. She later worked various temporary assignments. Her assignment with the Senior Connection was her favorite because through them she was placed at Crossover Clinic helping others.

Carolyn was a loving daughter who took care of her sick mother through her illness and helped take care of her stepfather as well. She loved watching tennis on television with her aunt Rosa. She also enjoyed reading and talking with her neighbors, especially if they were outside when she came home from work.

She was a woman of strength and courage, who was giving of her time to others. Carolyn never failed to offer a smile that would light up a room or lend a helping hand to those in need. The impact she had on people she encountered along her journey was immeasurable.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Carl A. Faulk and step-father, Floyd Patterson. Carolyn leaves to cherish her memories a loving mother, Mary Patterson; one devoted niece; Shaundrae Faulk (Brian); three aunts, Rosa Tillar (Thelmo), Alice Thomas and Betty Bacote; uncle, Mitchell Lee Bacote; a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins and special caring friends, one special family friend, Starline Pittman.
