

Carolyn Felicia Wilson

April 29, 1938 - July 7, 2008

The Obituary Mrs. Carolyn F. West Wilson was born April 29, 1938 in Richmond, Virginia. She was the middle child of three children born to the late Lenora and John Glasgow. On Monday, July 7, 2008, Carolyn departed this life and went on to be with the Lord. Carolyn was baptized at Fourth Baptist Church at an early age. As a child, she was a member of the junior choir and youth usher board. As an adult, she was a member of the R.L. Taylor Inspirational Choir and Elizabeth Payne's Church School adult class. She loved her church and continued to be an active and committed member until her illness. In 1961, she was united in holy matrimony to John S. Wilson. Together, they enjoyed a life of peace, love, and happiness until he passed. Years later, she met James Coleman whom she adored. He gave her much joy and was a very loving and committed friend until the end. Carolyn attended Richmond Public Schools and graduated from Armstrong High School. She later attended Virginia Union University with aspirations of teaching. Carolyn followed in the footsteps of many of her aunts in the field of education. She was employed with the Richmond Public School system for 32 years where she met many of her life long friends. She worked for most of those years in the Title I Reading Program at several schools to include, Reid Elementary, Greene Elementary, Mary Munford Elementary, and A.V. Norrell Elementary. She was a dedicated teacher and tough as nails. As many of her colleagues put it "Carolyn could have run the entire school." In June 2004, she retired from the school system and A. V. Norrell Elementary. Carolyn was a loving mother, sister, aunt, daughter, wife, and friend. She prided herself in helping others and always lived by the rule of doing unto others as you would have done unto you. She was adored and known by many to include her former students who would see her out in public. They would shout "Hey Mrs. Wilson, do you remember me?" She would quickly reply with their names and the parent's name. She never forgot the faces of her students. She was an avid Wal-Mart shopper where the employees knew her by name. She loved Shoney's where she would have lunch with her dear friend "Woody" (Roslyn). Her biggest past time was talking to her girlfriends. She could talk for hours! She also was known for decorating her house for every holiday. Carolyn was always sort of the backbone of the family. She was dependable and whether or not you wanted her to, she would step in and get it done. She loved full-heartedly and gave of herself with no expectations of receiving anything in return. She would never back down from a difficult situation. She was feisty and tough but respectful and most of all, respectable. In this manner one would always know that she was not to be taken lightly. Carolyn led a full and joyous life and she beamed with pride when she became a grandmother to Kennedy and Christian. She loved her grandchildren so much and they were the light of her life. She leaves to cherish her memory a loving daughter, Tara N. Robinson; sisters, Irene W. Page (Wilbur) and Johnette W. Robinson; a loving companion, James Coleman; grandchildren, Kennedy and Christian Robinson-Clarke; nieces and nephew, Sherri Page-Thomas (William), Crystal L. Page and Wilbur K. Page; uncles and aunts, Cornelius West (Inez), Rev. George West (Mary), Hattie Glasgow and Marjorie West; five great nieces and nephews and many more loving relatives and friends to include the very devoted, Roslyn Woody, Carolyn and Larry Tyler, Aileen and Ronald Coles, Irma Wood, and Martha Williams.

Tribute Wall

“ Carolyn Felicia Wilson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I miss you so much. I wish you were here.

TNR - January 17, 2017 at 05:07 PM

“ Rest in peace CaCa you have helped me to be a stronger and wiser woman. Enjoy the rest you so richly deserve. I love you, Sneeky :)###imported-begin###Crystal Page###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ You have earned your reward for here with us you were a "Jewel". Rest well Carolyn.###imported-begin###Wilbur L. Page###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ God Saw You... by Author Unknown God saw you getting tired, When a cure was not to be. So He wrapped his arms around you, and whispered, "Come to me". You didn't deserve what you went through, So He gave you rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best And when I saw you sleeping, So peaceful and free from pain I could not wish you back To suffer that again.###imported-begin###Crystal Page###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Life is but a stopping place, A pause in what's to be, A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, Different paths along the way, We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay... Our destination is a place, Far greater than we know. For some the journey's quicker, For some the journey's slow. And when the journey finally ends, We'll claim a great reward, And find an everlasting peace, Together with the Lord.##imported-begin##Mary Peterson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To Tara and Family: You have my sincere sympathy for the loss of your love one. As you know Carolyn was one of my telephone buddies and I will miss our many conversations. I sincerely pray that God will comfort you and your family at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Carol E. Coleman##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To Tara and your family, Tara you have my deepest sympathy on the loss of your mother. Just know in your heart that she is in a better place and no longer suffering. I will keep you and your family in my prayers. Prayers and condolences, Janice##imported-begin##Janice Cunningham##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Irene and family, My deepest sympathy to you in the passing of your loved one. Remember God is our Comforter. Warm thoughts of Carolyn will last forever.##imported-begin##Yvonne Jasper-Brown##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My sincere sympathy goes out to the family and friends of Ms. Wilson. As you reflect on your precious memories, may you also find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of Mrs. Wilson. One of my favorite scriptures is Acts 24:15 which lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much solace as you anticipate that wonderful future promise.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My sincere condolences to the family at this most difficult time. Please reflect on Acts 24:15 which says, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection of the righteous. One day your loved one will live again in paradise conditions. May Jehovah God and his son Jesus be with you to comfort you, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would to express fellow feeling in your circle of life being broken after 70 years. Our creator will always be there with comfort and caring words in the bible, the greatest book ever written for reading. Ms. Carolyn enjoyed the golden rule , Matt.7:12,states to do others the way you want to be treated. Once every one do that the earth will be a better place to live and enjoy life to the full. I hope these few words will be uplifting. As the journey of life keeping moving on may the many memories with Ms. Carolyn keep sustaining you all.##imported-begin##I.C.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM