

Carolyn Regina Harris

August 9, 1929 - January 10, 2022

Carolyn Regina Harris, affectionately known as Duke, was born on August 9, 1929, in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Edward and Madeline Phillips. She peacefully departed this life on January 10, 2022.

She received her formal education at Douglass High School of Baltimore, Maryland. She began her nursing career in the 1950s as a nurse aide at The Johns Hopkins Hospital. Carolyn then spent seven years working for The Long Green Nursing Home before becoming an aide at Rosewood State Hospital. During her years at Rosewood State Hospital, she entered and completed the Practical Nurse program, and went on to pass the Maryland State Board, earning her Practical Nurse license. Carolyn's gift of compassion and serving others led to 22 years of dedicated service at Good Samaritan Hospital where she retired in 1991.

Carolyn was a loving mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. In 1971, she married William "Stan" Harris and together they raised their beautiful children. Always fashionably dressed, Carolyn loved to travel and share new experiences with her family. She enjoyed trips to New York, family gatherings, Jeopardy! and crossword puzzles. She also enjoyed watching Colts and Ravens football games but most notably, was an avid Baltimore Orioles fan. She was a faithful believer in God; the Holy Trinity, the crucifixion, the ascension to heaven and the resurrection.

Never meeting a stranger, Carolyn made friends wherever she went and was greatly loved. Her loving spirit will be missed by many.

She leaves enumerable life lessons, a plethora of cherished memories, and a legendary legacy to her only child, Deborah Kelly (Joshua Richardson); her granddaughter, Candice Smith; her brother, William Phillips (Wanda Phillips); her sister, Barbara Fewes; two great-grandchildren, Nico Parker and Ryan Kline; nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To my dear Aunt Carolyn - who I grow up referring as "Duke". Its been many of years since I've seen you, but one of my fondest memories was as a little boy living in the family generational home in Baltimore, after running to the safety of the house while being menaced by a bully, you encouraging me to go back outside to face him, and my fears. Well, I did, and felt better of myself. Don't remember how the fight worked out with the bully, but at least I faced him and my own fears! Thank you Duke, that lesson stayed with me.

*Remembering you always,
Your nephew
