

Carolyn Hutton

July 1, 1947 - January 3, 2020

Carolyn Hutton, daughter of the late Cecil Storr and Clareth Hollinger, was born on July 1, 1947 in Pahokee, Florida. After a lengthy illness, she departed on January 3, 2020.

Carolyn moved to Fruitland, Maryland at a young age under the guardianship of Robert and Mable Osborne. She later relocated to Baltimore, Maryland, where she received her formal education from the Baltimore City Public School System. This is where Carolyn also met the love of her life, Melvin Hutton with whom she married on April 22, 1967. Their union of 53 years produced three children and an ever growing and lasting love between the two.

Her reputation was as an unmatched cook and everyone enjoyed her culinary cuisine. Her favorite food was "fried fish." She loved to share her passion for cooking with her family, friends and the community. She also gained popularity as a dancer and winning contests.

Carolyn had a successful career in the Human Services field. She was an entrepreneur at heart, owning several restaurants as a result of her love for cooking. She loved children and was affectionately known as "Mama" by many. This led her to start the "Hutton Family Daycare" which she operated for several years touching and nurturing many lives. She continued to express her love for others by providing home health care for several family members and friends. Her heart and love towards others brought her so much joy and was infectious.

Her heart and commitment for family and others should not overshadow her faith. She found Holy Temple Holiness Church of Deliverance, Inc. to be her home away from home for more than 20 years. Her church home gave her the ability to continue her passion of cooking for church members and the community as part of their culinary staff. Her faith in God and the church, joy, honesty, and commitment ultimately allowed others to grant her the title and serve as "Mother" of the church.

Carolyn's uniqueness and fun-loving nature was unforgettable. She loved to laugh and to make others laugh. She loved life, her family, her church family, and those in the community and was always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need. She had a love for traveling and she made numerous friends wherever she went, she will be sincerely missed.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her sisters Patsy Ross and Joan Hollinger, brother Lennard Hollinger, sister-in-law Barbara Hammond and brother-in-law Charles Hutton.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband, Melvin Hutton; three children, Melvina (Keith) Tapp, Karen (Clifton-Pop) Diggs and Marvin Hutton; six grandchildren, Kevin (KC) Hently, Martez Hall and Malik Diggs, Margin Hutton, Jr., Shannon Hutton and Marquise Hutton; four great-grandchildren, Kinsley, Autumn, Liala, and Charlie Rose; a special niece, Laqwana Jones; a special nephew, Brandon Hollinger; two goddaughters, Cynthia Pullet and Tonya Hayes; one godson, Bernie Hodge; two sisters, Nora Storr and Mary Osborne; two brothers, George Hollinger and Kyle Daniels; brothers-in-law, Michael Hammond (Barbara) and Randolph Hutton (Shawn); and a host of other relatives and friends.
