

Carolyn Mae Dandridge

August 11, 1938 - November 28, 2007

Carolyn Mae Apperson Dandridge, was born to the late Wilmer Apperson and Elizabeth Apperson in Richmond, Virginia. She departed this life to be with the Lord on November 28, 2007. Carolyn was preceded in death by her daughter, Carolyn M. Dandridge; one grandson, Victor Gayles; and one granddaughter, Simeka N. Dandridge. She professed her faith at a young age. She was baptized at Cedar Street Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia, but was not active due to her long illness. Her faith was strong and she loved the Lord. She attended Richmond Public Schools and finished Armstrong High School. Shortly after this education, she married James Edward Dandridge. This union produced five sons, James, Anthony, Charles, Victor, Jonathan and three daughters, Jacqueline, Gail and Carolyn. All of these children remained devoted to their mother throughout her life. Carolyn's life was devoted to her children. She loved her family being the matriarch that she was. She was a friend to many admonishing and encouraging in only her way as best as she could. She had an open door policy helping all around her. She will be truly missed by all. She leaves to cherish her loving memory two daughter, Jacqueline Dandridge and Gail Simmons (Kenneth); five sons, James, Anthony (Latasha), Charles (Pamela), Victor (Gwendolyn) and Jonathan Dandridge; fourteen grandchildren; ten great-children; two sisters, Alice Smith and Yvonne Sims; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and loving friends.

“ Please accept my sincere expression of sympathy, for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. There is a beautiful thought found in God's word the Bible that I am sure will bring you as much comfort as it has me. At John chapter 5, verses 28,29 Jesus himself said that all those in the memorial tombs would, "hear his voice and come out." Yes, the Christ promises us that we can see our dead loved ones again by means of the resurrection. I believe him, and I am sure that you do too! Feel free to contact me at the above address, and again, I am truly sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ May I send condolences to the Dandridge's family. Lossing a dear loved one like Ms. Carolyn after 69 years breaks the circle of life for all. Our creator cares for you all as the bible say at 1 Peter 5:7. We all know the feeling and pain from death, however , the time is coming when no one will die at all, Isa.25:8, death will be swallow up, gone forever. I hope these thoughts will be supportive on life journey.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
