

Carolyn Denice Hill McCray

August 20, 1967 - April 23, 2025

Carolyn Denice Hill McCray was born August 20, 1967, in Richmond, Virginia to Samuel Lee Hill and Sylvia Jean Hill. She is preceded in death by her maternal grandmother, Ersie Robinson; paternal grandmother, Julie Hill; uncle, Willie Robinson and aunt, Deloris Taylor.

Carolyn received her formal education in the Richmond City Public Schools in Richmond, Virginia. She furthered her education at J. Sergeant Reynolds Community College in Richmond, Virginia.

Carolyn accepted Christ as her Savior at the age of 17 and was united with Grayland Baptist Church.

She was employed by the United States Postal Service as a Mail Handler for four years. She formerly worked for Bon Secours Memorial Regional Medical Center in Environmental Services for 20 years.

In her leisure she enjoyed traveling, watching her grandson play football, and spending time with family and friends. She was a vibrant social butterfly, full of sass and spirit. Her determination and strong work ethic were matched by a gentle, yet firm nature. She lit up every room she entered, leaving a lasting impression through her warmth, resilience, and charm.

Her life was a beautiful symphony of faith, family, and service. Carolyn found joy and purpose in serving others, having a listening ear, and giving impactful words of encouragement.

She leaves to cherish memories to her daughter, Ironda Hill; grandson, G'Meer Edmonds; son-in-law, Garius Edmonds; parents, Sylvia and Samuel Hill; sister, Cynthia Hill; aunt, Mary L. Hicks; uncles, Bud, George, Red, Boo-Boo; nephew, Jesse Hill; her partner, Ronald Booker; and a host of cousins other relatives; and dear friends, Bridgette, Charnetta, Donie, Shina, Nita and Marcia.

Though our hearts are heavy, we celebrate the love, laughter, and legacy Carolyn leaves behind. Her memory will live on in every story shared, every meal cooked with love, and every phone conversation remembered. Carolyn lived out loud, loved big, and laughed often. She'll be missed but never forgotten.

My heartfelt sympathies go out to the Hill family. Carolyn will be deeply missed. We shared many joyful moments at Memorial Regional Medical Center. I loved listening to her stories about her travels with family and friends. Her smile was always bright, especially when she spoke of her loved ones. Rest in peace, my dear friend.

“ To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

To the Family: May God provide you the strength required to maneuver through this difficult time and season.

Carolyn, I will always remember how you were the only one to call me “Bibbie Jean”. I will truly miss you. Take care as you rest in God’s bosom.
