

Carolyn McIntyre

June 19, 1939 - November 12, 2001

Carolyn McIntyre was born on June 19, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the first child of the late William “Buddy” and Margaret Todd. She departed this life after a long illness in November 12, 2001. Carolyn was educated in the Baltimore Public Schools. Carolyn was a life long member of St. Philip’s Evangelical Lutheran Church where she was confirmed and married. During this time, she participated in many activities. Carolyn was a member of the first Senior Girl Scouts at St. Phillip's. She was also a very active participant in the Luther League, and served as a youth counselor at Camp Jolly Acres. In later years, she served as a member of the Finance Committee, the Zipporah Circle, and Chancel Choir. After graduating from Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School in 1957, she had a very rewarding career as a clerk with the Baltimore City Health Department. During this time she was joined in Holy Matrimony with James K. McIntyre on March 27, 1960. They were blessed with two sons from this union, Todd Wilder McIntyre and Jason Kyle McIntyre, after working for 12 years with the Baltimore City Health Department; she retired to devote more time to her family. Carolyn enjoyed many different hobbies. She became an accomplished ceramic artist making a variety of designs such as soup tureens, elephants, and praying hands. Sewing, traveling, reading, bowling, and crossword puzzles also gave Carolyn a tremendous amount of joy. Carolyn was loved and admired by her family and friends for her generosity, loyalty, and dependability. We will all miss her. She leaves to mourn her caring husband James, her loving sons, Todd and Jason; her brother, Earl Todd; and aunt, Mildred Duarte; five sisters-in-law, Dorothy Weeks, Lorraine Whitehurst, Olivia Nichols, Gloria Cooper, Lynette Todd; four nieces, Lisa Travis, Karen Gulliver, Daphne Cheeks, Melissa Todd; and a host of other relatives and friends.
