

Carolyn Muhammad

October 24, 1955 - February 9, 2019

Carolyn Marie Miller Muhammad, daughter of the late George, Sr. and Margaret Miller, was born on October 24, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. In His infinite wisdom, God called Ree, as she was affectionately known, home to be with Him on Saturday, February 9, 2019

Ree received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated from Northern High School in 1973. Ree furthered her education at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County.

After graduation, Ree embarked upon a career with Baltimore City's Department of Public Works. She later worked for the Department of Corrections and Anne Arundel County Government.

On January 29, 1991, Ree married Anwar Muhammad. From this union, Elijah George F.L. Muhammad was born.

During her early years, Ree attended and was baptized at Calvary Baptist Church. Later, she embraced the Muslim religion. In recent years, she was back at Calvary and could be seen standing, waving her hands in response to the moving of the spirit in her.

Ree enjoyed spending time with her family, helping others, sharing her love of Black culture, reading, singing, making people laugh and recreating her mother's favorite recipes.

Our beloved Ree will forever be remembered in our hearts. Ree was preceded in death by her sister, Barbara Ann Miller and she leaves to cherish in many fond memories: her loving son, Elijah Muhammad; seven siblings: Harry McClelland (Maria), Gloria "GoGo" Sinkler (Johnnie, Deceased), George Miller, Jr., Brenda "Boo" Miller, Diane Miller, James "Joe" Miller, Toby Ervin, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family, and friends.

“ Losing someone to death is so hard to deal with all by itself but not having a hope in the future is something else so please draw some comfort from these words found in the Bible that will not only give your family a hope for the future but also give them closure. Isaiah 25:8
