“ My name is Cynthia Johnson and I am a former employee of Miss Carolyn. We have spent several moments sharing special memories of her work here at the City of Baltimore and Miss Carolyn was one of my mentors when I came to the Parking Fines Dept in 2010. Her son was mentored by my husband, Charles E. Johnson, III. (Horsey) My fondest memory of Miss Carolyn is that she never changed and her smile was so infectious and her favorite phrase when asked how she was doing, she would simply say, "I am still standing." I and my husband will miss her dearly and our love and prayers go out to the family.
