

Carolyn Richie Mae Rodgers

February 14, 1938 - January 9, 2011

CAROLYN RODGERS, daughter of the late Rev. Dr. Joseph E. Hammond and Missionary Bernice E. Hammond. She was born on February 14, 1938 in Charlotte, North Carolina. She departed this life on January 9, 2011 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in the Charlotte, North Carolina School System where she lived until the age of thirteen. Then she came to Baltimore, Maryland to finish her education at Frederick Douglass High School.

On January 14, 1956 she married the love of her life George R. Rodgers, Jr. Out of this union came seven children, two daughters passed very early in infancy. Out of the remaining children, the eldest child passed on February 23, 2009. The four remaining children are: Pamela, Denise, Lamont and Carlos. Carolyn was gainfully employed with the Housing Authority of Baltimore City as a Carpenter for the elderly where she worked faithfully until the day of her illness. All her energy was geared toward caring for her family and friends.

Mourning and cherishing her loving memory are: her children, Pamela McDermott, Denise Rodgers, Lamont Rodgers and Carlos Rodgers; eleven grandchildren, Donte' Harris, Kedra Lynch, Davon Lynch, Tierra Lynch, William Harris, Jr., Danielle Hasan, Carolyn Mitchell, Roland Love, Jr., Lamont Rodgers, Jr., D'Ara Rodgers and Carlos Rodgers, Jr.; eight great-grandchildren, Omarion, Tyrek, Jeramiah, William III, Tyquwan, Malik, Jasmine and Ayesha; two sons-in-law; and a host of friends. She will be dearly missed by all.

“ I am so sorry that I am just finding out about Carolyn. I used to be her supervisor at the Housing Authority at Wyman House some years ago. Carolyn was a wonderful and caring person to the many seniors of the building. Carolyn had a sweet spirit and was a dedicated worker.

I will always cherish the fond memories of Carolyn. God bless the family.
