

Carolyn Sandra Jones

September 7, 1945 - February 11, 2010

CAROLYN SANDRA HARRISON JONES was born September 7, 1945, in Isle of Wight, Virginia to the late Elton and Bernice Harrison. On Thursday, February 11, 2010 at her home in Baltimore, Maryland after a long illness, she was called home from her labor. She attended public schools in Surry and graduated from L. P. Jackson High School. On December 23, 1971, Carolyn married her long time sweetheart Charles L. Jones (Pookie) who preceded her in death. Carolyn definitely made an impression on whomever she met, especially those she worked with. Many of those friendships were established at The House in the Pines, Lutheran Hospital, The Department of Unemployment, The Department of Mental Health and Hygiene, and finally Maryland Rehabilitation Center, where she retired after fifteen years of service due to illness. In 1996, She received the Governor's Citation for her outstanding service for the State of Maryland. At an early age Carolyn joined Lebanon Baptist Church under the auspices of the Rev. J. Marshburn. She remained an active member until she moved to Baltimore where she later joined The Ray of Hope Baptist Church where the Rev. Charles M. Franklin Jr. is pastor. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Ms. Tileshia Jones-Farmer (Jarvis), Baltimore, MD; three grandsons, Tivon Jones, Khalif Farmer and Asa Farmer, Baltimore, MD.; one sister, Veronica Anthony (Darnell), Newport News, VA.; three brothers, Eugene Jackson (Patty), Kernersville, N.C., Lazard Harrison (Terri), Rialto, CA., Ernest O. Harrison, Washington, DC.; a number of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus bring our 'enemy to nothing'. (1Corinthians 15:26) That day, will really be a celebration of life!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Carolyn Sandra Jones. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21;3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S.
