

Carolyn Ann Satterfield-McDongald

November 11, 1947 - April 3, 2014

Carolyn Satterfield- McDougald, daughter of the late Aaron Neblett and Rose was born on November 11, 1947 in Baltimore MD. Although she put up a brave fight, she succumbed to illness on Thursday, April 3, 2014.

Carolyn who was affectionately called Mom-Mom, grew up in Baltimore, MD. She Graduated from Sollers Point High School in the class of 1964. She retired from Vulcan Hart after 22 years of loyal service.

Carolyn was a loving wife, sister, mother. Grandmother, aunt, and loyal friend. A very important aspect of Carolyn's life was her family. She married her devoted husband, Willie McDougald, on November 11, 1989. she was looking forward to enjoying 25 years of marriage in November. Carolyn had three children and eleven grandchildren. She shared a unique relationship with each one of them. Whether it was her smile that made their day. The constant reassurance of her love, or the tenderly affectionate strokes that would put them to sleep., Mom- Mom made it clear that she genuinely loved her family. She was many things to many persons. She was a jokester; she loved to watch the movie "The Parent Trap", listening to her grandchildren sing, and being a playmate during "Barbies and Weddings or nail Designs. There was nothing she wouldn't do for those in need, especially her family. Carolyn will be remembered for her positive attitude, strength, and humility. She was also forward thinking. In fact, while she was battling this serious illness, her thoughts were on planing to get home to make cornbread for one of the grandchildren and going on a “date” with anther.

Another important part of Carolyn's life was her service to Jehovah God. After studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses, she symbolized her dedication by water baptism on June 1, 1976. she served as an auxiliary pioneer from time to time as circumstances allowed, and was regular with her meeting attendance despite enduring chronic illness. She was comforted by the truths she learned from the Bible and used those truths to comfort those who witnessed her suffering. She now awaits the time when” all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” (John5:28,29).

Carolyn was preceded in death by her father and mother, Aaron Neblett and Rose Jackson; siblings: Alvin, Michael, Melvin”Danny”, and Arnita. She leaves to cherish her Memory: her husband Willie McDougald; her children: LISA bell (Efrem); John Satterfield; Toya Satterfield-Gross(Theodore); siblings: Jerry, Ronald, Phillip”Curtis”, Tony (Marie), Bernadine, Cornell(Shirley), Denesia, and Linda” Lynn”; grandchildren: Shakira, Tayron, Dayshawn, Sharday, Lexus, John, Taniya, Tyren, Rane, Faida, and John Lee; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and other family members. Carolyn truly left a lasting impression on all who met her. it is with deep sadness we are left to cherish her memory.

“ Condolences family and friends. I know you will miss Ms. Carolyn greatly. I wanted to offer a word of encouragement from the Bible that helps us to know that Jehovah God will comfort us through all our trials and tribulations. 2 Corinthians 1:4 He promises us that we will see our dead loved ones again on a paradise earth. John 5:28-29 Please hold fast to this hope and to learn more visit www.jw.org or speak with Jehovahs Witnesses in your local area.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the Satterfield-McDonglad family. In God's word the Bible Jesus Christ boldly promised: “Just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Yes, Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever under peaceful, paradisaic conditions. Hopefully this will give you some comfort through this difficult time. You are in my prayers. To find out more about Jesus' promise go to www.jw.org.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Satterfield-McDongald Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures our dear loved ones a resurrection on a restored paradise earth. He even assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
