

Carolyn E. Smith

March 15, 1947 - November 3, 2011

Carolyn Elaine Smith, the third child of nine, born to the late Charles and Margaret Butler was born March 15, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on November 3, 2011 to go home to be with the Lord, after a short illness.

At an early age she attended the Mount Zion Baptist Church in Waverly there she loved singing on the church choir.

Carolyn was educated in the Schools of Baltimore City. The training she received allowed her to work in many fields during her working career. Before Carolyn's death she was employed by Pastor Geraldine James of W.S.B. Memorial Apostolic Church.

Carolyn was united in holy Matrimony to Foster C. Smith, Sr. the love of her life .They enjoyed their life together traveling , socializing and entertaining family and friends.

Our dear Carolyn was a loving person. If you met Carolyn you would never forget her. Carolyn's favorite saying was "Duh". She loved collecting family and friends pictures. If you visit her home, you would say "Is that my picture" or "when did I you get that" and of course she would respond "Duh"(smiling). She loved and appreciated her family. She loved having cook outs and preparing meals for the holiday. She loved planting and arranging flowers in and outside of her home. Carolyn had the only green thumb in the family . She could keep plants for a life time. Carolyn also loved crabbing, fishing, family outings, dancing, camping, and attending jazz concerts.

Carolyn was preceded in death, this year , by her loving niece Robin Denise Williams on September 2, 2011.

Carolyn Elaine Smith leaves to cherish her many great memories to her loving and devoted husband Foster C. Smith Jr. (Beverly), Warren Smith (Glenda) and Gregory Smith; three sisters Beverly, Barbara and Joann; five brothers: William (Marvais), Charles, James Daniel (deceased), Graham and Michael; two cousins; Joan and Doris; one god son: Edwin Young; eleven nieces and nineteen nephews. A hist of great nieces, great nephews, other family members and a multitude of friends.
