Legacy of Life

The harvest does not speak of an untimely cutting down of the grain; rather it speaks of it being in its season. Therefore, the life lived by our departed love one should not be viewed as untimely, but in it's season, the season of God's choosing. Embrace the appreciation for the one that gave life, gave provision, good or bad; realizing it all is granted possible through the blessings of Jesus Christ.

Carolyn Marie Thomas was born in Richmond, Virginia on January 3, 1956 to Sarah Miller and Joseph Briggs. She was born the 3rd child of 7 children. She was preceded in death by her parents, Sarah Miller, Benjamin and Joseph Talridge Briggs; two brothers, Marion Perkins and Joseph Perkins.

She formally worked as a cook at a nursing home many years ago and at MCV Hospital. Carolyn was an amazing mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. If she could help you she would. She always was a firecracker and an extraordinary woman that loved life to the fullest. Carolyn was funny, sassy and a smile that could light up a room. She loved to play cards and to always be around her family. Carolyn was an extremely good cook. Carolyn will be truly missed, but never forgotten. Her strength personified and she was phenomenal. Our beloved's legacy will live beyond her physical body.

On Sunday, February 7, 2021, Carolyn was called to the pearly gates of heaven and she gladly answered with a smile upon her face. Carolyn is survived by her two daughters, Tarah Engleheart (Edwin) and Yovondalyn Robinson (Richard); one son, DaeQuan Perkins (Tameka); nine grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; four sisters, Linda Jones (Walter), Margarett Hicks, Faustina Taylor and Yolondie Perkins; devoted friend of 15 years, Robert Blue; a host of nieces, nephews and lots of caring friends.

All those we love are a part of us,
for things of beauty leave their trace,
and memories of all we have shared,
are treasures time cannot erase.

“ Carolyn Thomas was a mother in law one in a million. Was there when I needed her the most. She took to her Myia like no other seen one seen other. You are truly going to be miss. Miss your smile that lites up the room and miss those long talked. U were the only one that could make me understand when things was wrong. I love you so much and keep watching ova us as we continue our journey.

“ I'm really sorry that covi would not be there with all of my family on this sad but happy day. Sad because Carolyn is no longer here with us and happy because the things that plagued her, can not any longer. Carolyn lived the life that she chose in the manner that she chose. She made an impact on the live of numerous people some we may know. We all will miss her smile, her attitude and her opinion.

The preacher sometimes preaches on the "dash" that is inserted between our birth year and our last year. That period of time we are allowed to be here with cognitive function and and ability so speak to others. We all get that, but what will you do with your "dash"? Will you serve and others so that you can be served or choose to serve yourself? The MOST HIGH GOD made us, decided which family needed us the most, gave us friends that we include as family, then set us on a course called life to see what we would and function with-in that family. The downside is we ALL only get 1 chance in this world. So, what will YOU do with your "DASH". Love and help others and please remember that the MOST HIGH GOD is not only watching but also keeping track. Much love.
