“ Carolyn and I worked together at Vepco/Virginia Power in the Claims Department many years ago. We have kept in touch through Facebook. I know she loved you very much by the stories she shared. The last time I saw her was at the Virginia Power retirees Christmas party. She still looked the same as she did when we worked together. It seemed as though she didn't remember me, but we took a picture together. Praying for you and the family and just remember she is in a much better place and one day you will be reunited with her and your dad. Hold on to all the good memories you had with her.
