

Carolyne Bogan

February 16, 1950 - November 30, 2016

Carolyne Bogan, born to the late Howard and Ossie Bogan on February 16, 1950, departed this life on November 30, 2016 at Retreat Hospital, Richmond, Virginia.

Carolyne was preceded in death by her parents and two brothers, Charles (Chuck) and Russell Bogan.

Carolyne, affectionately known as Carol to her family and friends, attended Clara Barton High School in Brooklyn, New York. She was a special kind of person, so full of love and positivity. Her main focus in life was her five children and her grandchildren, always putting herself last.

Carol was the toughest of the family, a woman who didn't like conflict, always looking at the brighter side of situations, even through her sickness and pain. She was that person everyone enjoyed being around. Her favorite past time was playing Pokeno with her family, a game she loved.

She relocated to Richmond, VA, 16 years ago and became more involved in her faith, Jehovah Witness. Once Carol met her brothers and sisters in the Kingdom Hall, she didn't miss New York so much anymore.

Carol leaves to cherish her memories two daughters, Terina Bogan and LeeAnne Gooding, three sons, Jason Bogan (Andrea), Eric Foster (Amiga) and Kyle Bogan, fourteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren, two sisters, Paulette Gooding and Beatrice Bogan-Brandon; two brothers, Howard Bogan, Jr. and Alex Bogan; two sisters-in-law, Stacy Bogan and Missy Bogan; one brother-in-law, Rudy Brandon and a host of nieces,nephews,cousins and friends.
