

Carria E. Ingram

September 29, 1925 - November 19, 2013

CARRIA ELIZABETH INGRAM, daughter of the late Ethel Golsom Rhinehart and Jeremiah Rhinehart, Sr., was born on September 29, 1925 in Chester, South Carolina.

She received her education in the public school system of South Carolina. At an early age she accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Saviour. In 1948, she married the late Reginald Ingram, and from this blessed union four children were born, (Dwight and Sharon who preceded her in death) Renard and Alan Ingram. She joined Concord Baptist Church, where she remained an avid member, however her Christian journey continued from home during her later years.

Carria was an immaculate wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, family member and friend. She was a compassionate, caring and kind woman who shared her life with others. She will forever be missed.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, Renard and Alan Ingram; seven grandchildren, Lamont, Brittany (whom she raised as a daughter), Montel, Darius, Dwight, Zuri and Brya; and one beloved great-grand, Arden; as well as a host of friends.

“ To the family of Carrie E. Ingram:
*Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
