On the morning of July 17, 2018, after a long illness, she received her wings. At a very young age of six she became a devoted member of St. Matthews New Life United Methodist Church. She truly loved working for the Lord Jesus Christ. Always smiling, ushering and singing on the choir, "Yeah child". She was a faithful member of United Methodist Women, Edmondson Village Golden Seniors and Guiding Light Circle. She was the first member of the Lyndhurst Block Watchers.

On May 17, 1951, Carrie married the love of her life Joe Eddie Bowers. Out of their union of love are five sons; James, Larry, Edwin, Tyrone, Tracey and one daughter Brigit. God blessed the family with only one daughter. the mother-daughter relationship was truly bonded and more powerful than anyone could ever imagine. She enjoyed spending time with her children and weekend shopping at the malls with her sisters. Another of her greatest joys was when all the family and friends got together, eating, joking, laughing, dancing, and celebrating life and love.

Her memory will be cherished by her six loving children and three daughters-in-law, James (Karen), Larry (Dotty), Eddie (Phyllis), Tyrone, Tracey (Sharon) and Brigit.
