

Carrie C. Brown

August 26, 1919 - January 3, 2003

Carrie Caroline Brown, daughter of the late Moses and Maggie Brown, was born on July 26, 1919 in Dinwiddie County, Virginia. On Saturday, January 4, 2003, the Lord sent His angels to welcome her into eternal life. Carrie spent her early years in Dinwiddie County, where she attended the public schools. Later moving to Baltimore, she attended nursing school. For many years she took great delight in providing nursing assistant services at Maryland General Hospital and Carrie was endowed with special natural gifts. Her sincere faith in and care of the people whom she knew was perhaps the most obvious. Carrie believed in lending a helping hand whenever or wherever it was needed. She was always a true friend and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. Carrie was devoted to her family and always offered an open home and heart to her children and grandchildren. She delighted in spending time with her family in Maryland and Virginia. In addition to her family activities, Carrie also loved singing spirituals, and she enjoyed traveling. Her daughters, Deloris and Francine preceded her in death. Memories of Carrie will always be cherished by her son, Reginald and daughter, Bonita; her five grandchildren, David, Kelly, James, Vonderlier and Reginald; thirteen great-grandchildren; daughter-in-law, Marian, and other relatives and friends.
