

Carrie Maxine Cornish

November 8, 1939 - January 18, 2014

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thy own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths. — Proverbs 3:5 & 6

CARRIE MAXINE HOGAN CORNISH, daughter of the late Austin Hogan, Sr. and Sallie Tillery Hogan, was born in Tillery, North Carolina on November 8, 1939, the tenth and last born child. She departed this life on January 18, 2014.

She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Saviour. Carrie was called to join our Saviour in that home, made without hands, but whose Maker and Builder is God. After the death of her father, her mother migrated to Baltimore, Maryland. She was baptized under the leadership of Rev. E. D. Meade of Israel Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland.

Carrie received her formal education through the Baltimore City Public School System.

During her lifetime Carrie worked at Eastern Venetian Blinds for ten years in Baltimore City. She later moved to California and furthered her career as a supervisor at LAC & USC Medical Center for forty years, from which she retired in 2009 at the tender age of seventy. She then relocated to Baltimore, Md. where she continued to live life to the fullest.

In her spare time, she loved to listen to one of her favorite artists, Al Green. She had a smile so beautiful that it would light up any room.

Carrie was preceded in death by her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hogan; son, Gerald R. Hogan; and daughter, Karen A. Hogan.

Carrie's legacy of love will continue to live on in and through her two devoted daughters, Rosalind Gray and Delores (Denise) Armstong; son, Daryl Cornish; adopted son, Andre Tyler; devoted and loving companion of forty years, Sam Ballard; four grandsons, Tyrell, Ché, Daryl Jr. and Kennedy; two granddaughters, Karen and Tyché; six great-grandchildren, Kalah, Kaiya, Tyrell Jr., Khole, Yirmiyah and Jamare; two sisters, Lillian Heartwell, Josephine Stephenson; two sons-in-law, Darryl Kane and Floyd Armstrong; loving friend, Mary (Weasie) Cruse; caregiver, Nikette Tillery; and a host of other family members and friends.

“ Condolences to the Cornish family. I am so sorry to learn of your loss. The Holy criptures assures us that the time will soon come when mankind's enemy death will be no more. May you find comfort in the words found in the Bible book of Isaiah 25: 8 when it speaks of a time when almighty God will swallow up death forever and tears will be wiped from all faces.
