“ I wish to send my deep sympathy to the family. When we lose a loved one in death, it is something so hard to come to terms with, because we miss them so much and want to be with them. I rejoice in the bible promise that the dead will come to life again when Jehovah God ressurects them from the dead. that is certainly something wonderful to look forward to, because no family should have to go through such pain, because it was never God's purpose for such things to happen. Only through the disobedience of Adam and Eve is the reason why we die today. Romans 5:12 speaks about this. It says: And that is why through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." Lovingly, Jehovah made the way possible for us to be forgiven of our sins, and recive everlasting life, and it was made possible through the blood of our saviour, Christ Jesus, who died so that all may live. 1st Cor 15:22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ, all will be made alive." Soon there will be no more pain, no more tears. So keep your hope and confidence in our heavenly father, and may your precious memories of your loved one comfort you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##
