

Carrie Etta Sellers

September 20, 1924 - October 10, 2002

Carrie E. Sellers, daughter of the late George and Carrie Williamson, was born on September 20, 1924 in Blairs, South Carolina. She departed this life on October 10, 2002, after a lengthy illness. Carrie received her education in Columbia, South Carolina and later completed courses at Cortez Peters Business College in Baltimore. As a young woman she became employed at the Johns Hopkins Hospital where she would retire after more than 35 years of service. She was married to the late Junius W. Sellers, Sr., and from this union three children were born: Etta, Gloria and Junius W. Sellers, Jr., known to the family as Warner. Carrie was a longtime member of Sharon Baptist Church. She was a quiet person filled with goodness and a loving presence. She was always available to help others and believed that people should be concerned with each other's welfare and /or condition. She cared deeply for family and was a devoted wife, parent and grandparent. She was a true and loyal friend. Her presence will be sincerely missed by all that know her. Carrie leaves to cherish her memory, her children, daughters, Etta and Gloria; son, Junius W. Sellers, Jr.; grandchildren, Cheryl, Yvette, Laureen, Tonia and Derrick; great-grandson, Eric; sister, Rose Ann Sawyer of Cleveland, Ohio; sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law; Louis and Helen Gwynn and Eugene and Gertrude Gamble of Virginia and sister-in-law, Elizabeth Sellers; three life-long friends, Darcus Richburg, Edna Robinson and Naomi Tull, a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.
