

Carrie Mae Jackson

September 22, 1933 - November 4, 2010

CARRIE MAE JACKSON, daughter of the late Jim Little and Mary Smith, was born on September 22, 1933 in Mendenhall, Mississippi. She peacefully went on to be with the Lord on November 4, 2010 after a lengthy illness.

In 1948, Carrie met and married Willie Jackson and from this union three children were born and an adopted son. At the age of seventeen, she journeyed into the work place. Carrie began employment at Keswick Nursing Home and after thirty years of service she retired. She was an active and lifelong member of Calvary Baptist Church where she served as a Deaconess and a member of the Prime-Aide Group. Carrie dedicated her life to raising her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Carrie enjoyed spending time with family, sewing and crocheting. She was kind, honest and diligent to serving the Lord. She raised her children to trust in "God" and encourage her family throughout her days, and her wisdom will remain with them forever.

Carrie leaves to cherish her memory: her beloved husband, Willie Jackson; four devoted children, daughter, Henrietta (Nancy) Pickford, three sons, Charles Jackson, Bryant Jackson and Willie Albert Jackson; three daughter-in-law, Fredist, Sherri and Sabra Jackson; two brothers, Jim and Addison Little; two sisters, Mary Moore and Alice Little; four grandchildren, Antonio and Sean Pickford, Joniece and Jordan Jackson; four great-great-grandchild, Jene', Anthony, Christopher and Justin Pickford; one great-great-grandchildren, John Grier; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by two sisters, Judy Radcliffe and Ruby Harper.
