

Carrie Wynn Johnson

August 3, 1950 - April 23, 2020

Carrie C. Wynn Johnson, was born August 30, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland to Charles Mac Wynn and Gertrude Mary Harris. She was one of four children, three siblings preceded her in death - Paul, Jerry and Barbara Wynn. Carrie professed her belief in Christ at an early age and was baptized at Saint Peter Claver. Carrie was educated at Saint Peter Claver where she graduated. She then furthered her education and graduated from Edmondson High School, Baltimore, Maryland. Carrie furthered her education and received her Bachelor degree from Sojourner Douglass College. She was gainfully employed by the Baltimore City Public School system as a secretary and later was hired by the Barber Steamship Line. Eventually, Carrie left in search for a better opportunity and became gainfully employed by the federal government, United States Department of Defense, where she retired after 17 years as a procurement specialist.

Carrie was a loving person. She loved cats and she enjoyed jazz and attending jazz concerts, camping and fishing with her husband Craig. They did everything together. She also loved tennis and never missed a match.

Carrie's husband, Craig Johnson, as well as, sisters-in-law, Rosalyn Wynn and Shirley Demstrey preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory, brothers, Clarence "Frog" Wynn and Charles Wynn; sisters-in-law, Patsy Gladden, Carolyn Wynn; devoted friend, Senator Joan Carter Conway;

16 nieces and nephews, 50 great nieces and nephews, 5 great-great nieces and nephews and special niece Kia Wynn, whom she raised as her daughter; nephews Kirt Rogers Wynn and Jerome Rogers, whom she also assisted in raising; special friends Delores Brown (cousin), Vedonia Ford and Norrice Herndon, who was a best friend since the age of 6 years old, and a host of family and friends.
