

Carrie Jones

May 5, 1932 - February 3, 2002

Carrie Jones, daughter of the late Clarence and Connie Means, was born on May 5, 1932 in Spartanburg, South Carolina. She departed this life on February 3, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Highland High School in Spartanburg. At the age of nineteen, Mayfair Mills on a part-time basis employed her while she also attended school. She became a full-time employee of this company for twenty years. She married the late Olden Jones. The two moved to Baltimore, Maryland. From this union two children were born, Geraldine and Connie. She was lifelong member of First Apostolic Faith Church (Bishop Showell, Pastor). Carrie made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and devoted wife and mother. She leaves to mourn: two daughters, Geraldine Avent and Connie Carter; one son-in-law, Arthur Carter; granddaughter, Danielle Avent; four sisters, Louis Tillison and Mildred Means of Spartanburg, S.C., Helen Harris and Elizabeth Means of Baltimore, MD.; one brother, John Henry Brewden of Welford, S.C.; godson, Marvin; two brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.
