

Carrie Louise Kittell

September 17, 1917 - November 21, 2013

Carrie Louise Kittell, 96, of Richmond, Virginia departed this life on Thursday, November 21, 2013. She was born in Chatham, New York to the late Mrs. and Mrs. Taylor. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband Irving C. Kittell; daughter, Juanita Smith and brother, George Taylor.

Carrie accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized again in the faith on May 30, 1986. She served as the church treasurer of Emanuel A.M.E. Church in Rochelle, New York during her membership.

She was united in holy matrimony with her soulmate and best friend, the late Irving Clarence Kittell on March 26, 1937 in Chatham, New York. From that union three children were born.

In her leisure she enjoyed crocheting, arts and crafts and spending time with family and friends. Carrie had a special love for cats and horses. We loved her for the passion she brought to everything she chose to do, for her depth and breadth of interests, for the loyalty she showed to her friends, for her understated but over-whelming sensitivity and for that totally unpredictable sense of humour. She was a praying woman that always started on her knees daily. Carrie loved fashion and you could tell by her style of elegance. She was a nurturing, genuine person that provided much happiness in the home.

Carrie will always be remembered as a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister and special friend to many. She lived a life of harmony and unity. Our home growing up was a place of refuge. She taught us love and respect by example. There were never harsh words or anger. We know more of selfless love by her example.

She leaves to cherish memories to her loving daughter, Patricia L. Jeter; caring son, Wayne Kittell (Gwendolyn); 10 grandchildren, a host of great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

Because of the wonderful love she shared, she will never be forgotten and will always be in our hearts. We are so fortunate to have had her in our lives and we feel empty without her.

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of your dear loved one. When we draw close to God, he will draw close to us; one way is through prayer. Pray to God that He will continue to keep you and bless you in spite of anything Satan thinks he can throw on you. God is the God of all comfort "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." -2Corinthians 1:3

“ To the family of Ms. Kittell: My dad is 97 and is still with me and so I know how precious it must have been to have had Ms. Kittell with you for 96 years. May your many fine memories of her help you to cope with your loss and may the God of all comfort and tender mercies be with your family. Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing." Our prayers are with your family.

*Sincerely,
Linn & Family*

“ To the family of Carrie Louise Kittell:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible give us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

Condolences to the Kittell Family. May God be with you all at this very difficult time but please read the scripture in your bible that tells -you will see your loved one again. This is found at John 5:28-29. This is the Resurrection Hope for mankind. Until that time keep the memories of Mrs. Kittell dear to your heart.
