

Carrie L. Walker

June 13, 1923 - March 18, 2002

Carrie Lee Walker, daughter of the late Wade and Linell Crane, was born on June 13, 1923 in Hartsville, South Carolina. She departed this life on March 18, 2002 after a lengthy illness. Carrie Lee was educated in the schools of South Carolina. She married Otis Jackson, and out of this union one son was born, Willie Joe. At age 18, Carrie moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where she worked at a number of jobs until she began a twenty-year career with the General Services Administration. From her second marriage to Matthews Graham, five children were born, Matthews II, Mildred, Linell, John and Sandra. Carrie Lee enjoyed fishing, traveling and cooking; she delighted in the birth of her seventh child, Evelyn. Carrie was an energetic, hard-working woman who was devoted to her family and friends. She always had a kind word to say and a strong shoulder to lend. Carrie Lee leaves to mourn six children, sixteen grandchildren, two sisters-in-law, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ May God comfort and strengthen you Willie Joe and Matthew as you struggle to make it through each day. The loss of a dear loved one is never easy, but lean on the strong arms of a mighty God. HE can heal the sorrows of the heart. Just know that HE does not make any mistakes. Your mom has gone to a better place.##imported-begin##Lizzie Johnson##imported-end##
