“ My family and I offer our deepest sympathy to Ms. Davis' family and friends. As you reflect on her life and draw comfort from your precious memories, remember the One who is the source of life has given us a source of comfort, during times like these. The hope of the resurrection mentioned at Acts 24:15. We can find comfort in this hope because Hebrews 6:18 tells us it is impossible for God to lie. Let him be your source of comfort.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy to you all during this sad time. It is so painful to lose someone we love in death, and above all God knows how much we grieve and miss our loved ones. That is why he purposes to raise the dead back to life, and rid the world of sickness and death forever. This was not his purpose from the beginning for people to suffer this tragedy, and because of his great love for us; it is still his purpose for us to live in peaceful, secure conditions without death hanging over our heads like a dark cloud. Please read Isaiah 33:24, Isaih 25:8, Acts 24:15, 2nd Peter 3:13, Rev 21:3-5, and John 5:28,29 for comfort. One day, no more sorrow; no more tears. May your precious memories of your loved one help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to Ms. Davis' family and friends. The loss of such a loving, caring person can be painful and difficult to bear. That is why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, it reassures us that God is going to do away with that "enemy" and all the pain it causes at 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Then "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up."-Daniel 12:2. May your study of God's Word of Truth, the Bible, comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
