

Carrie M. Jennings

February 21, 1924 - May 5, 2005

Carrie Mae Jennings was born in Chattanooga, Tennessee on February 21, 1924 to the late Buck Freeman and Ella Davis. She attended Saint Paul Community Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. She became an employee of Johns Hopkins University in 1977 from which she would later retire. Carrie was a very open-minded person. You could walk into her house for the first time and she would welcome you with open arms. She was a very loving person. Carrie was also an excellent cook. If you had a favorite dish that you only liked her to cook, all you had to do was ask her to cook it for you and she would. No questions asked. That is how big her heart was. Carrie also loved her dog Holly and she would let you know it. Nobody messed with Holly. She would always joke with us and say, "You will go before Holly goes." She leaves to mourn; her loving children, Lorenzo Eric Jennings Sr. and Joyce Renee Jennings; four brothers, Willie James Freeman (Ann) of Georgia, Paul Allen of Georgia, Claude Freeman (Trish) of Georgia, Thomas Freeman (Carolyn) of Georgia; three sisters, Annie Joe of Georgia, Mary Parish of Georgia, Linda Allen of Georgia; eight grandchildren, Steven Johnson, Lelani Booker, Timmera Jennings, Lorenzo Eric Jennings, Jr., Kara Jeanette Jennings, Latoyia Renee Jennings, Christopher Avery and Corey Lamar Vongvatunyu; five great-grandchildren, Micaya Booker, Malea Booker, Monica, Shamiara Johnson, Shakeema Johnson; and two devoted cousins, Peggy Martin and Jewellene Johnson; and devoted sister, Annie Joe; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that this scripture comforts you.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Carrie Mae (Mom Mom) was a great inspiration to me. She was a wonderful and loving person and was always there when you needed her. She opened her doors to me and gave me a place to lay my head when my apartment had been involved in a fire. I will never forget her for that. I love her and will never forget her. Lorenzo and Joyce you had a very special mother. Thank you Mom Mom. God Bless You.##imported-begin##Roslyn Penn##imported-end##
