

Carrie M. Smith

September 19, 1948 - May 11, 2005

Carrie Mae McCrorey-Smith, daughter of the late Walter L. McCrorey and Irene McCrorey, was born on September 19, 1948 in Blackstock, South Carolina. Carrie departed her life on the 11th of May, 2005 after a short illness at home. Carrie received her education at Fairmount Hill High School. She was a presser at the Ruxton Cleaners in Towson for more than twenty years. Carrie fulfilled her life dream of buying a home in 1998 and on November 28, 1998 she married her sweetheart Thomas B. Smith. She was then known as "Big Sis., Mrs. Smith." Carrie loved to cook and clean. She was a member of Mt. Hattin Baptist Church which she joined in November, 1998. Carrie served as Deaconess, sang on the Sanctuary Choir and was president of the Pastor's Aid Committee. She would always bring her famous pot-roast dish to the church dinners. She was a faithful worker in the church. Carrie leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Thomas B. Smith; daughter, Irene Perkins; and son, Timothy Smith; mother, Irene McCrorey; four sisters, Annette Robinson, Emma Harris, Diane Stevenson and Phyllistene Alexander; three brothers, William Odell and Rickey McCrorey; four brothers-in-law and five sisters-in-law; goddaughter, Stephanie Stukes; three best friends, Shirley Bowser, Maezolla Doles and Gloris Williams; twelve nieces, seven nephews, one aunt and three uncles; a host of other relatives and friends. Carrie was preceded in death by her brother, Roger McCrorey; and her sister, Debbie Jones.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family I offer my deepest sympathy. Unfortunately we all experience the sorrow associated with the loss of a loved one. However, we have a source of comfort and hope in the Bible. May you find such comfort in the resurrection hope found at John 5:28, 29 and Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
