

Carrie Mitchell

September 19, 1933 - February 20, 2019

CARRIE MITCHELL was born September 19, 1933 in Winston Salem, North Carolina, the youngest of seven children who preceded her in death. Care-Bell, as she's affectionately known by the family, received her education in Winston Salem, North Carolina public schools. In 1948 she received an award for rapid legible handwriting from The Palmer Method of Business Writing and graduated from Atkin High School in 1952. At an early age Carrie accepted Christ as her personal Savior and attended several Baptist churches there.

In the early 60's she moved to Baltimore, met the only man in her life, Cleavern Otis Cone; and from that union were two sons, Mark Curtis Mitchell (deceased) and Kenneth Carroll Mitchell. Being domestically employed, she raised them alone. Carrie was a very quiet and soft-spoken person. Her hobbies were reading, fishing, sports and drawing art, managing the drill at family outings; and the love for all pets, specially her dog Snowball.

Carrie was very devoted to family, opening not only her heart but her home, taking in and raising her niece Tammy and nephew Eric Koger from toddlers to adults. She had been a longtime member of Foundation Baptist Church until she later joined Mt. Carmel Baptist Church under the leadership of Bishop Leroy Baptist Church under Pastor Letitia Bazemore where she remained until her illness.

Carrie leaves to mourn; her son, Kenneth Carroll Mitchell; her extended kids, Tammy and Eric Koger; two granddaughters, Kendra Nicole Mitchell (Balto.) Kennedy Lauren Mitchell (Laurel); and a host of other relatives and friends
