Our beloved Carrie Foster Pleasant was born to the late Robert and Susie Foster on October 24, 1927, in Clover Virginia.

After a tough battle with cancer she slipped into a peaceful sleep on November 3, 2010 at Memorial Regional Medical Center in Mechancisville, Virginia.

She met and married her lifelong love Masiah Pleasant, their union was based on love and devotion lasted 60 + years. Carrie was a dedicated and devoted wife and mother her children.

She was preceded in death by her son; Joseph Foster and granddaughter; Keyvianta "Tee" Waterman.

She leaves to cherish her memory to her devoted husband; Masiah Pleasant, two loving sons; Lawrence Foster (Bernetta) and Melvin Pleasant, two loving daughters;

Marcheta Foster (Curtis) and Angela Pleasant; one sister; Etta Foster Coleman; nine grandchildren; Larry, Phyllis, Shelleta, Sean, Kevin, Jamel, Romaro, Katrina, Salice and eight great-grandchildren, a cherished niece; Virginia Coleman among the nieces and nephews along with a host of great nieces and great nephews and other relatives.

To her husband, Masiah she will always be irreplaceable. Carrie was a devoted, loving and sweet wife who rarely complained about anything. Mariah says "This strong independent woman was a blessing to me. Carrie made me smile; she will forever be My Queen".

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Despite this difficult time, you can be comforted by the resurrection hope as set forth in the Bible. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this, but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." May this wonderful promise comfort you in this time of bereavement.
