

Carrie B. Randolph

September 18, 1930 - March 2, 2018

On September 18, 1930 God sent an angel to earth and she was named CARRIE BELL LOVETTE. On Monday, March 2, 2018 God said that His angel's work was done and called Carrie Bell home. She passed away peacefully at the age of 87.

Carrie was born in Panama City, Florida to Lillian Barrett. She graduated from Hutto High School in 1947. Carrie married Charles Andrew Thompthin in 1950. That same year she welcomed her first child into the world, Janice Thompthin, and two years later Linda Thompthin joined the family. In 1952 Carrie Bell and Charles moved to Cleveland, Ohio where in 1953 she gave birth to Shirley Thompthin and Jacqueline Edwards in 1955 before moving to Baltimore, Maryland to be closer to her own mother.

Carrie Bell, who had been an only child, wanted a big family of her own and was elated when she gave birth to her first son Michael Thompthin in 1959. She and her husband separated that year. Carrie met Charles Randolph in 1965 and through this union Craig Randolph was born a year later in 1966. Her children remember her as a driven mother who encouraged them to pursue their goals.

Carrie was accomplished at many things in life and often baked and cooked. She was a witty and generous individual who loved bowling and card nights and who was passionate about shopping. Carrie Bell was an entrepreneur who continued to work until she was 80 years old.

After becoming ill with dementia she moved in with her granddaughter Candace Church.

Carrie Bell is survived by five of her seven children (Shirley Thompthin and Craig Randolph preceded her in death), eleven grandchildren, and a host of great-grandchildren as well as other family and friends.
