

Carrie E. Redd

May 5, 1925 - May 23, 2014

CARRIE ELIZABETH REDD, daughter of the late Josephine Hickman, was born on May 5, 1927 in Durham, North Carolina. She departed this life on May 23, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

Aunt Carrie received her education in the Durham, North Carolina school system. She married the late Sterling Redd Jr. on September 24, 1950 and they moved to Baltimore in the 50s. She was a member of Gillis Memorial Church and was employed as a nursing assistant and medicine aide at Keswick Nursing Home until her retirement in 1989.

Affectionately called "Aunt Carrie" by most, she was a very caring, loving and funny woman who enjoyed spending time with her family. Aunt Carrie will sincerely be missed

She leaves to mourn: devoted nieces, Janis Davis, Renee Hickman and Antoinette Brown; nephew, Jerry Hickman; eighteen nephews and nieces, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
