“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again since God put time indefinite into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John 5:28-29; Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ We will miss Ms. Bennett at St. Ambrose. She was such a gem, an inspiration. She always wanted to say hello to all of us after Church service. We were with her to celebrate her 90th birthday. Family you all have to know that you took care of Ms. Bennett and treated her like the queen she was. She was a gem at St. Ambrose. God bless all of you. We love you.##imported-begin##The Jigetts Family##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. The bible describes death as our enemy and we all look forward to it being 'swallowed up' forever. May you find comfort in knowing that very soon Almighty God Jehovah by means of his son Jesus Christ, will defeat our enemy!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Rev 21:4,5 helps us see that our enemies sickness, pain, sorrow and death will be done away with. Please receive much comfort and strength from family, friends and from the wonderful hope found in the Bible.###imported-begin##B. Dixon###imported-end##
