

Carrie Scott

August 16, 1923 - February 26, 2019

CARRIE SCOTT, daughter of the late Daniel “Chatman” and Laura Cain, was born on August 16, 1923 in Florence, South Carolina. She was granted her angel wings on February 26, 2019. Her final days were spent surrounded by family and friends that Mama had touched in numerous ways throughout her very memorable life.

She grew up in South Carolina where she received her education in the Clausson County Public School System. She later moved to Baltimore, Maryland with her sister Sallie (Cain) White and brother Joseph Cain who both preceded her in death.

Mom worked as a private duty nurse for several doctors and cared for the elderly for almost 30 years until her retirement in 1982.

Earlier in life she found the Lord and joined Highway Christian Church under the leadership of its pastor Bishop A. Williams. She was Mother of the Church for many years and a soldier of the Lord for life.

Anyone who knew Mom knew that her passions were cooking, sewing and going fishing on a boat (any kind of boat it did not matter).

In August, 2018 she received a Governor’s citation in celebration her 95th birthday. This was such a happy occasion for her that she started her “Shake-Shake-Shake” dancing, as she called it, and we all laughed.

Three of her five sons preceded her in death, Joseph Scott, Sr., Larry White and Andrew White.

Carrie leaves to mourn: two sons, Albert White (Rebecca) and Henry

Spears; fifteen grandchildren, six great-grandchildren; sister, Annabelle Strawder of Pittsburgh; and a host of loving relatives and friends.

Mom, we'll always remember your ever loving thoughtfulness and the smile you had for everybody. We will miss you dearly.

"We Love You"
