

Carrie V. Segal

May 18, 1929 - August 10, 2019

The Sunrise on the life, Carrie V. Segal, lovingly known as "Ting", began on May 19, 1929; born to Benjamin Rutherford Wilkins and Virginia Irene Wilkins in Littleton, NC.

Carrie was the seventh child of eight. Her siblings preceding her in death were Wilbur (1917), George (1919), Catherine (1921), Lester (1922) Jessie (1923), Percell (1925) and Lloyd (1935).

Carrie was educated in Littleton, NC at the Warren County School system. After completing school she moved to Baltimore MD where most of her sibling were living.

During her time in Baltimore she became a long time member of Macedonia apostolic Church. She was employed doing piece work at Lion Brothers Embroidery Company (1885), a historic factory located in Baltimore, Md.

Along her journey, Carrie met the love of her life, Aaron Segal, who traveled by bike from Washington, DC to Baltimore just to be in her presence. They wedded in 1960 and from this union three children were born. David, Duane and Michael Segal. She was a devoted mother to her children (David and Duane preceded her in death) and a devoted wife to her husband. Aaron (preceded her in death).

Carrie loved sewing, cooking, reading the Bible, spending time with family and church. Although she experienced many obstacles throughout her life, she never let them get the best of her.

Carrie was a fighter, loving mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, friend and a devoted Christian.

The Sunset on her life was August 9, 2019. She leaves to cherish memory of her, a son, Michael Segal, Sr. and a grandson, Michael Segal, Jr.; also a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Dear Michael and Family

I am so very sorry for the loss of your mother Carrie Segal. I, remember the first time I met her and your dad at Rosalie & Roscoe Poole's house in D.C. along with your brother Duane. She was such an amazing woman. You, or someone told me how to communicate with her by just writing in her hand what I had to say. This was exciting to me and I never ever forgot how she just laughed and smiled when I was talking with her. She was sweet and I will never ever forget her. She will now be with her wonderful husband and her two sons. May she rest in peace with God. Much love to you!
