“ My condolence to the family. It times like these that we need comfort from the Bible. The Bible promises that our dear loved ones have the hope of the resurrection hear on earth in the near future we find this promise at (John 5:28, 29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment. The resurrection is possible because God sent his Son to give his life for us. So it is an expression of Jehovah's love and undeserved kindness.—Read John 3:16; Romans 6:23.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the lost of your dear loved one. It is during times like these that we can find comfort in God’s word such as the scripture at John 5: 28, 29 where Jesus said “the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out.”

“ I am sorry to read about the passing of your loved one that has fallen asleep in death. The loss of a loved one grieves the heart and makes us yearn for tomorrow, when Jehovah God keeps the promise he made at Rev 21:3-4 when death, mourning, outcry, pain and sorrow will be eliminated. Isn’t that good news, these things that cause mankind so much pain will be eliminated.

“ I am sorry for your loss. The bible promises that death will be no more (Revelation 21:3,4). It also holds out the hope of a resurrection for all those in God’s memory (John 5:28,29). Until then may we the living use our lives to make a good name with God (Ecclesiastes 7:1).

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
