

Carrie Victory Carter

October 20, 1897 - January 1, 2002

Carrie Milton Carter, daughter of the late Sarah (Chew) Milton, slipped away quietly on Tuesday, January 1, 2002. She was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on October 20, 1897, and later her parents migrated to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where she spent most of her life. At an early age she joined St. James U.M.E Church and served faithfully for many years. She met Robert Carter, who she later married in 1917. From this union two sons were born William G. Carter (deceased) and Allen V. Carter, Sr. Her life was spent as a loving wife, raising her family and enjoying her many hobbies. The two hobbies that she enjoyed the most were knitting, crocheting and ceramics. She later taught ceramics. After the death of her husband in 1980, she moved to Baltimore to reside with her son, Dr. Allen V. Carter and wife, Catherine Carter. After coming to Baltimore, Carrie joined the Sharp Street Methodist Church, where she attended faithfully until she was no longer able. Holding on to memories of Carrie are: her son, Allen Carter, Sr., and wife Catherine; grandsons, Gerald Carter of Atlanta, Ga., Allen V. Carter, Jr., of Baltimore, Md., Keith Carter of Pittsburgh, Pa., Garry Carter of Pittsburgh, Pa.; granddaughters, Jerry George of New York, N.Y., Jean Graham of Charlotte, N.C; their spouses, and a host of great-grandchildren.
