Born in Baltimore, Maryland on April 1, 1932, CARRIE was the youngest of five children born to late George and Carrie Turner. She departed this life on Mother's Day, May 13, 2007, to be with her Savior. She was a very likeable person with many friends and a very strong and determined personality. Carrie was devoted, passionate and long-standing member of Mt. Olivet Christian Church. She was baptized by Reverend C. L. Whitfield, as a youngster, She was a member of the Senior Choir and the Christian Women's Fellowship (CWF). She served for many years with finance Committee, She loved to worship God and it showed in her work, Until the very end me Carrie remained a faithful church member, attending when she could, even when she did not have energy to do so. “ Please accept my sincere sympathy at this difficult time. Jesus provided comforting words at John 5:28, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out..." On the basis of Jesus' ransom sacrifice, Christians have a real hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. We don't have to doubt, because Titus 1:2 states in part..."..God cannot lie..."##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. Sadly, death touches all families sooner or later. Many people wonder why is there so much pain and sorrow on the earth. The bible tells us at 1st John 4:8 that "God is love". It is definitely not his desire for people to lose their loved ones in death. That is why his holy word, the bible tells us at Rev. 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." One day the terrible things people are going through today will be gone. All of the violence, the sickness, the hungry children, the sicknesses we endure, and the death will all be gone. Isaiah 65:17 lets us know that Jehovah will even erase the memory of these things from our minds and hearts. Then John 5:28,29 lets us know that all the dead in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of Jesus and come out of those tombs. I hope that you find comfort from friends who care, and from the promises in the bible.##imported-begin##R

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear family and friends of Carrie, I am very sorry to hear about the death of your loved one. Death is never an easy thing to go through. The bible tells of a time when we will see our dead loved ones again. John 5:28,29. This is not the only thing the bible says will happen, at Rev 21:4, it says that there will be a time when there is no more sickness, pain, and death, it will all be a thing of the past!##imported-begin##A.J##imported-end##

“ I am truley sorry for your loss of Carrie. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort your family. Psalms 116:15 reads...Precious in the eyes of Jehovah is death of his loyal ones. Ecclesiastes 7:1 reads...A name is better than good oil, and the day of death than the day of one being born. Isaih 25:8 reads...He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people will take away from all the earth, For Jehovah himself as spoken it.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ I am Very sorry that your family have loss Carrie, to death. I know that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual life span is 70 to 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die one for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ MY CONDOLENCES TO THE YOUNG FAMILY. THIS IS ATIME WHEN WE NEED A GOOD FRIEND. THE BIBLE TELLS US WE ARE LIVING IN A TIME OF CRISIS. EZEKEIL 9:4 "LET'S US KNOW PEOPLE ARE "SIGHING AND GROANING". WE CAN APPRECIATE THAT JEHOVAH GOD CAN HELP US WITH OUR SORROWS. HE CAN COMFORT US WHEN WE ARE SAD AND MAKE US STRONG WHEN WE ARE WEAK. PSALMS 55:22 "THROW YOUR BURDENS ON HIM AND HE WILL SUBSTAIN YOU". REV 21:4 "ONE DAY DEATH WILL BE SWALLOW UP FOREVER". PLEASE USE THE BIBLE AS A SOURCE OF COMFORT.##imported-begin##PHYLLIS DUVALL##imported-end##
