

Carroll Brandon Sorrell

October 5, 1984 - November 12, 2008

CARROLL BRANDEN SORRELL JR., son of Carroll Sorrell Sr. and Vanessa Sorrel, was born October 5, 1984 at Johns Hopkins Hospital weighing 11lb. 6oz. The Lord saw fit to call home His saint on November 12, 2008. When he was born it wasn't much hope for his survival, but God had other plans for Carroll. Favorably known as CJ, he was saved at Mt. Zion Baptist Church at eight years of age. From that moment in life his purpose was to take care of everyone he loved. Family was everything to him, and protected them no matter the situation. Rap music was his passion. He could rap about anything, any subject, to any song. He never got the chance to take the rap game by storm because he would have. After losing his father at age sixteen, he became the man of the family. He took his role very seriously. He fulfilled his father's wish by graduating from Northern High School in 2001 with honors. He became employed at C&W Construction Company and G&G Flawless Painting Company for a moment. Saying, "I'll never get married," was his something else he was passionate about, until he met Michelle at Jai Medical Center in 2005. They were married on June 4, 2006. Always being the family man, he made sure we were all one big family. There are no words that can describe the many lives he touched with his encouraging words, bright angelic smile and the ability to have an answer for you when you needed one. To say he celebrated life to the fullest describes his bright and lively spirit. He will be sorely missed by the many whose lives he touched. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Michelle Sorrell; mother, Vanessa Sorrell; sister, Shawde Sorrell; stepdaughter, Takia; stepgrandson, Jaymes Van; brothers, Jermaine Sorrell, Joseph Avery Jr.; aunts, Anna, Berta, Marian, Margie, Eyvette, Diana, Randall, Lisa, Ernestine, Denise and Leester; uncles, Preston, Dewayne, Tony and Carroll; mother-in-law, Gloria Avery; sisters-in-law, Nerissa Brinkley, Kaynetha James; brother-in-law, Alfred L. Mills Jr., and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
