

Cartilla Eley

April 2, 1959 - November 9, 2009

CARTILLA ELEY (PEACHES), daughter of the late Willie B. Eley and Louise Curtis, was born on April 2, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. Peaches departed this life on November 10, 2009 after a brief illness. Peaches received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Later she went into the Job Corps and attended business school. Peaches later worked for the Federal Reserve Bank. She also worked for Little Step Child Services, Inc. Once Peaches became disabled, she would do volunteer work. She was a very loving person. She loved to dance, listen to music and read. She leaves to cherish her memory: three brothers, Ulysses, William and Nathaniel Eley; stepfather, William Curtis Jr.; three aunts, Jeanette Rice, Cartilla Holbert and Shirley Eldridge; two uncles, James Rice and Alvin Eldridge; a devoted friend, James Little; nieces, nephews, and many other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Cartilla Eley

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I offer my sincere condolences to the family at this time. I know how hard it is to cope with the passing of a loved one, and I really sympathize with the pain you are going through. It certainly is heartbreaking. I've lost many loved ones, but what helps me keep going is the sure hope of the resurrection. This promise is found in the bible at John 5:28,29 which says: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus's) voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life. Stay focused on the joy you will have when Cartilla comes back from the dead. This is Jehovah God's promise to us; a promise from the God who cannot lie. Titus 1:2. May you be comforted by this wonderful promise, and keep your eyes fixed on the prize.##imported-begin##R Johnsons##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM