“ While walking in her earthy tabernacle, she was smart and attractive. Now living with glorification credentials, 'Ci Ci' is looking better and better. We will miss our loving mother, grandmother, educator and Worshipper of the King. We will always remember your kind spirit.

“ Such a beautiful person inside and out. She always showed her love and support for her family. I remember when I was pregnant with my son, and we both were trying to convince my husband to name my son Chase. When I had my son and told her that his name is Ciar (pronounced C R), with disgust on my face, we both looked at each other with confusion which then turned into a laugh. She then told me "Nya, he is still precious and God's gift to the both of you." I will always remember her smile and how warm and welcoming her spirit was. I love you Cascelia!

“ I'm so sorry to hear of the passing of your dear family member. The Bible states that to be absent from the body means to be present with the Lord. And what other better place besides earth life to be, than to be with the Lord; who will provide all your family's needs.

May God shower his love and blessings upon your entire family.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. Jehovah God promises to do away with our suffering. In Revelation 21:4, it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." How comforting to know what Jehovah promises for us. I hope this helps in your time of need.

Almost 13 years and not one day goes by without thinking of the life we shared. No one could touch Cascelia before or since. She was a natural and the definition of self-actualization includes a photo of Cascelia. She was the world to me; physically, emotionally, and spirituality. We dedicated our guidance and companionship to each other. I wa the most fortunate to have known and grown with her for more than 32 years. She was and will remain the highlight of my life for evermore.

*All I can think is that only the good die young!
Forever, missy!*
