Even though I never got to meet you, you will always be loved

Cassielle Rozario - March 24, 2025 at 09:16 PM

“ I send my sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family for the loss of your precious baby, It is so unfair when we lose a loved one in death, especially when we lose a precious child, My heart goes out to you, and I pray you receive much comfort and strength from our loving heavenly father, Jehovah. He knows better than anyone what you're going through, and I want you to know that he promises to end all pain and death, and resurrect the dead back to life. Death was not his purpose for us. He hates death, and views it as our enemy. That is why he promises at 1st Cor 15:26, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. When Jesus came to the earth he performed many miracles. His most outstanding miracle was to raise the dead back to life. At Mark 5:38-43 the account tells us how he raised a little 12-year old girl back to life. The account says that her parents were beside themselves with great ecstasy at seeing their little girl alive again. This was a preview of what he will do in the near future as king of Jehovah's kingdom. May it comfort you to know that your little one is in God's memory, and one day she will live again to be able to enjoy life to the full. John 5:28,29###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ My family and I offer our deepest sympathy to Casey's family. As you reflect on her life and draw comfort from your precious memories, remember the One who is the source of life has given us a source of comfort doing times like these. The hope of the resurrection mentioned at Acts 24:15. We can find comfort in this hope because Hebrews 6:18 tells us it is impossible for God to lie. Let him be your source of comfort.###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end###
