

Cassandra Cordelia Davis

December 6, 1950 - October 28, 2005

CASSANDRA CORDELIA DAVIS, daughter of James Henry and Geraldine Davis, entered this life on December 6, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was peacefully called home to be with the Lord on October 28, 2005, while hospitalized at Joseph Richey Hospice. Cassandra received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated from Western High School, and continued her education at Coppin State College. While at Coppin, she was a cheerleader and became a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. in 1971. "Cassie," as family and friends affectionately called her, enjoyed working with children. She taught students with special needs at the following schools: Alicia Crossland School #17, Robert Poole Middle School, Fallstaff Middle School, and Harbor City from which she retired after twenty-seven years of services. Cassandra was a member of New Psalmist Baptist for twenty years. She enjoyed helping and giving to others. She served as a Youth Advisor at New Psalmist Baptist Church; Youth Coordinator at Epworth United Methodist Church; Secretary and Coordinator of activities at the Robert C. Coleman Community Organization; and as a building rep for the Baltimore Teachers Union for many, many years. She was an active member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Mu Xi Zeta Chapter, Baltimore County; Coppin State University Alumni Association; and Maryland Retired Teachers' Association, Baltimore City. Cassie will be remembered for giving of herself, unselfishly, to her family and friends. She enjoyed traveling and liked to visit Foxwood, Charlestown, Atlantic City, and Delaware Park. She had a special talent for planning, organizing and coordinating family reunions, weddings and special events. She also loved sweets! She leaves to cherish her memory: two children, Cherrese Way and Carlos Bailey; two grandsons, Chetor Carter and Camillus Jackson; her father and mother, James Henry and Geraldine Davis; three brothers, James, Jerome and Hershaw Davis, Sr.; three sisters, Shera Williams, Jacqueline Ford and Michele Baker; two sisters-in-law, Dorothy and Angela Davis; two brothers-in-law, Paul Ford and Russell Williams; one son-in-law, Leonard Way; a great-aunt whom she loved dearly, Katherine Marsh; long time devoted friend, Albert Mooney; long time devoted "sisters," Elise Collier, Janie Williams, Fabienne Randall, Roberta Johnson and Pat Thomas; devoted sisters-in-Christ, Sandra Coger, Caroline Rudolph, and Sandra Baptist; four godchildren, Nicole Townes, Babette Richardson, Nathaniel "Winslow" Williams, and Krystin Johnson; a devoted home care nurse, Janice Randolph; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family. In difficult times such as this the scriptures has brought me and many others comfort. I'm sure you will find this to be true. When reading Daniel 12:2 Almighty God promises to "wake up" our dear loved ones so that we can have the hope of seeing them again. May you too gain strength from theses comforting words.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. First Corinthians 15:26 echoes what we deeply feel, death is really our enemy. That same verse reveals that death will one day be destroyed. What about our loved ones loss to death? Acts 24:15 declares- "there is going to be a resurrection. During that time there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:3-5, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) May you receive much comfort as you ponder over these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
