

Cassandra Curry

February 25, 1961 - February 3, 2019

Cassandra Curry, affectionately called Peanut, entered this world on February 25, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland, daughter of Bernice Curry and the late Nathaniel Edward Curry, Sr. She was the oldest of five children. She accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior early on as a child. Peanut departed this life on February 3, 2019.

She was educated through the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Dunbar High School, where she was a member of the swim team. She was employed by Johns Hopkins East Baltimore Medical Center for numerous years.

Peanut loved to talk to anyone she encountered. She was a very friendly and sociable person and loved to dress up. Peanut enjoyed drinking coffee and taking walks, and she loved watching sci-fi movies and listening to music. Peanut loved her family and could often be found spending time with them.

Peanut only had one child, Lokia Williams, with her longtime friend Larry Williams, whom she loved dearly and was very much proud of. She leaves to cherish her memory and legacy: her daughter, Lokia Williams; mother, Bernice Curry; siblings, Andre Curry, Zachary Curry, and Theotius Curry; her longtime friend, Larry Williams; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, a great-niece, family and friends. She was preceded in death by her brother Nathaniel Edward Curry Jr.

May her soul rest in perfect peace.
