Cassandra Christine Williams-Gilmer, daughter of the late Frank Williams, Sr. and Nellie C. Green, was born on July 28, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on February 13, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

“ Hoping it helps to know that others care and share your loss. My Deepest Sympathy

May these scriptures bring you comfort...Acts 24:15 - John 11:25 - Psalms 55:22 - John 5: 28, 29

“ Please accept my sincerest sympathy. I know first-hand the feeling of losing a loved one all too soon because I have been there on several occasions. At the same time, I have been comforted by the words of Jesus Christ who promises a resurrection of all those in the memorial tombs. (John 5:28, 29) I hope that his promise can bring you a measure of comfort.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. It may be comforting to know that God cares for each and every one of us. The Bible gives us hope that we can see our loved ones again on earth. John 5:28,29

“ My condolences to the Gilmer Family,

During this time of great sorrow, may it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. I too know the pain of losing someone dear. Even though our hearts are broken, rest assure that our Grand Creator cares about you personally (1 Peter 5:7) and can help you through this difficult time.

Revelation 21:4 says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Soon God will do away with death forever, there will be no more sorrow, heartache, or pain. I hope this brings you a measure of comfort during this painful time.
